

Adlestrop Open Day

Sunday 20 June 2010

12.00 – 5.00 p.m.

£4.00 per person, children free

Enjoy a golden afternoon in one of the prettiest villages in the Cotswolds: Adlestrop. Browse around the village's beautiful and varied gardens, the thirteenth century church and look at the thoroughbreds at the racing stables. Enjoy Ploughman's Lunches at Manor Farm House, delicious teas and cakes at the Village Hall and buy an ice cream from the thatched Post Office. There are numerous stalls of bric-a-brac, plants, local produce, a raffle to enter and prizes from the tombola stall.

Dog owners can bring their pets to enter the fun dog show and afterwards enjoy a game of traditional skittles or croquet at the village hall.

- Beautiful Gardens to view
- Bric a Brac • Plant Stall • Skittles • Raffle and Tombola • Ride for Children
- Ploughman's Lunches 12.00 – 2.00 pm • Teas and Cakes at the Village Hall until 4.30 pm
- Home Baked Cakes and Produce
- Church open to visitors
- Richard Phillips Racing Stable open for viewing

FUN DOG SHOW Judged by Jilly Cooper

Bring your pet and win a rosette!

Registration from 12.00

£1.00 entry per class

Show 1.00 – 4.00

All proceeds to benefit Adlestrop Church, the Village Hall and the local Villager Bus Service

How to get there:

Adlestrop is situated about three miles from Stow in the Wold and 6 miles from Chipping Norton – just half a mile off the A436

Entrance £4.00 per Adult – Children free – Free Car Park

Disabled facilities and toilet in Village Hall and access possible to some gardens.

All enquiries to Sue Main – 01608 658675 or email susan@adlestrop.eclipse.co.uk

Or visit our website www.adlestrop.org.uk